

CRHS band students participate in Conference and University activities

On January 16th Libby Spor (Junior, Tenor Sax) participated in the I-70 Conference Band. The event and performance was held at Concordia High School. After a day of auditioning and rehearsing the band performed under the direction Mr. John Bell (retired Director of Bands from Park Hill High School)

On February 12th Taylor Edwards (Freshman, Trumpet), Vince Kennedy (Sophomore, Trumpet) and Mike McEntee (Freshman, Horn) were participants in the 1st Invitational Brass Conference at Central Methodist University (CMU). During the day these students participated in group rehearsals and master-classes with CMU faculty and guest clinicians. The students held short performances at the end of the day (Trumpet Choir, Horn Choir, etc). Next year is scheduled to be a Woodwind Conference.
